

BUBU-BULBULI'S GARDEN

SANTANOO TAMULY

Illustrations
Durlabh Bhattacharjee

This title was developed in an author-illustrator workshop held in Agartala, Tripura in March 2008.

ISBN 978-81-237-5618-9

First Edition 2009

Reprints 2010, 2012 (Saka 1934)

© Santanoo Tamuly

Translation © National Book Trust, India

Bubu-Bulbulir Phulani (Asamiya Original)

₹ 30.00

Published by the Director, National Book Trust, India

Nehru Bhawan, 5 Institutional Area, Phase-II

Vasant Kunj, New Delhi-110 070

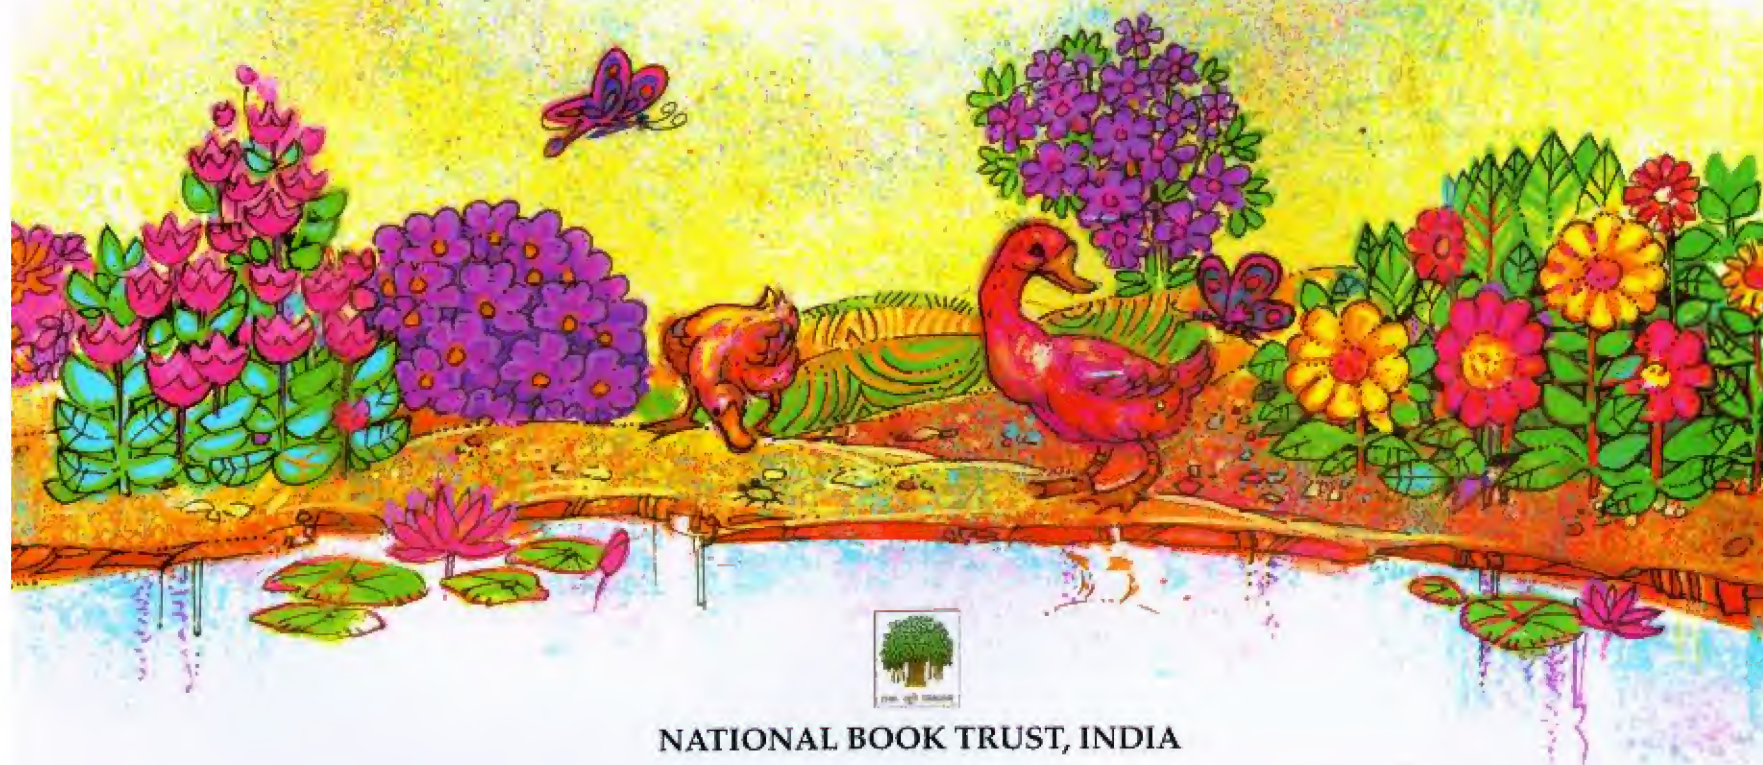

Nehru Bal Pustakalaya

BUBU-BULBULI'S GARDEN

SANTANOO TAMULY

Illustrations
DURLABH BHATTACHARJEE

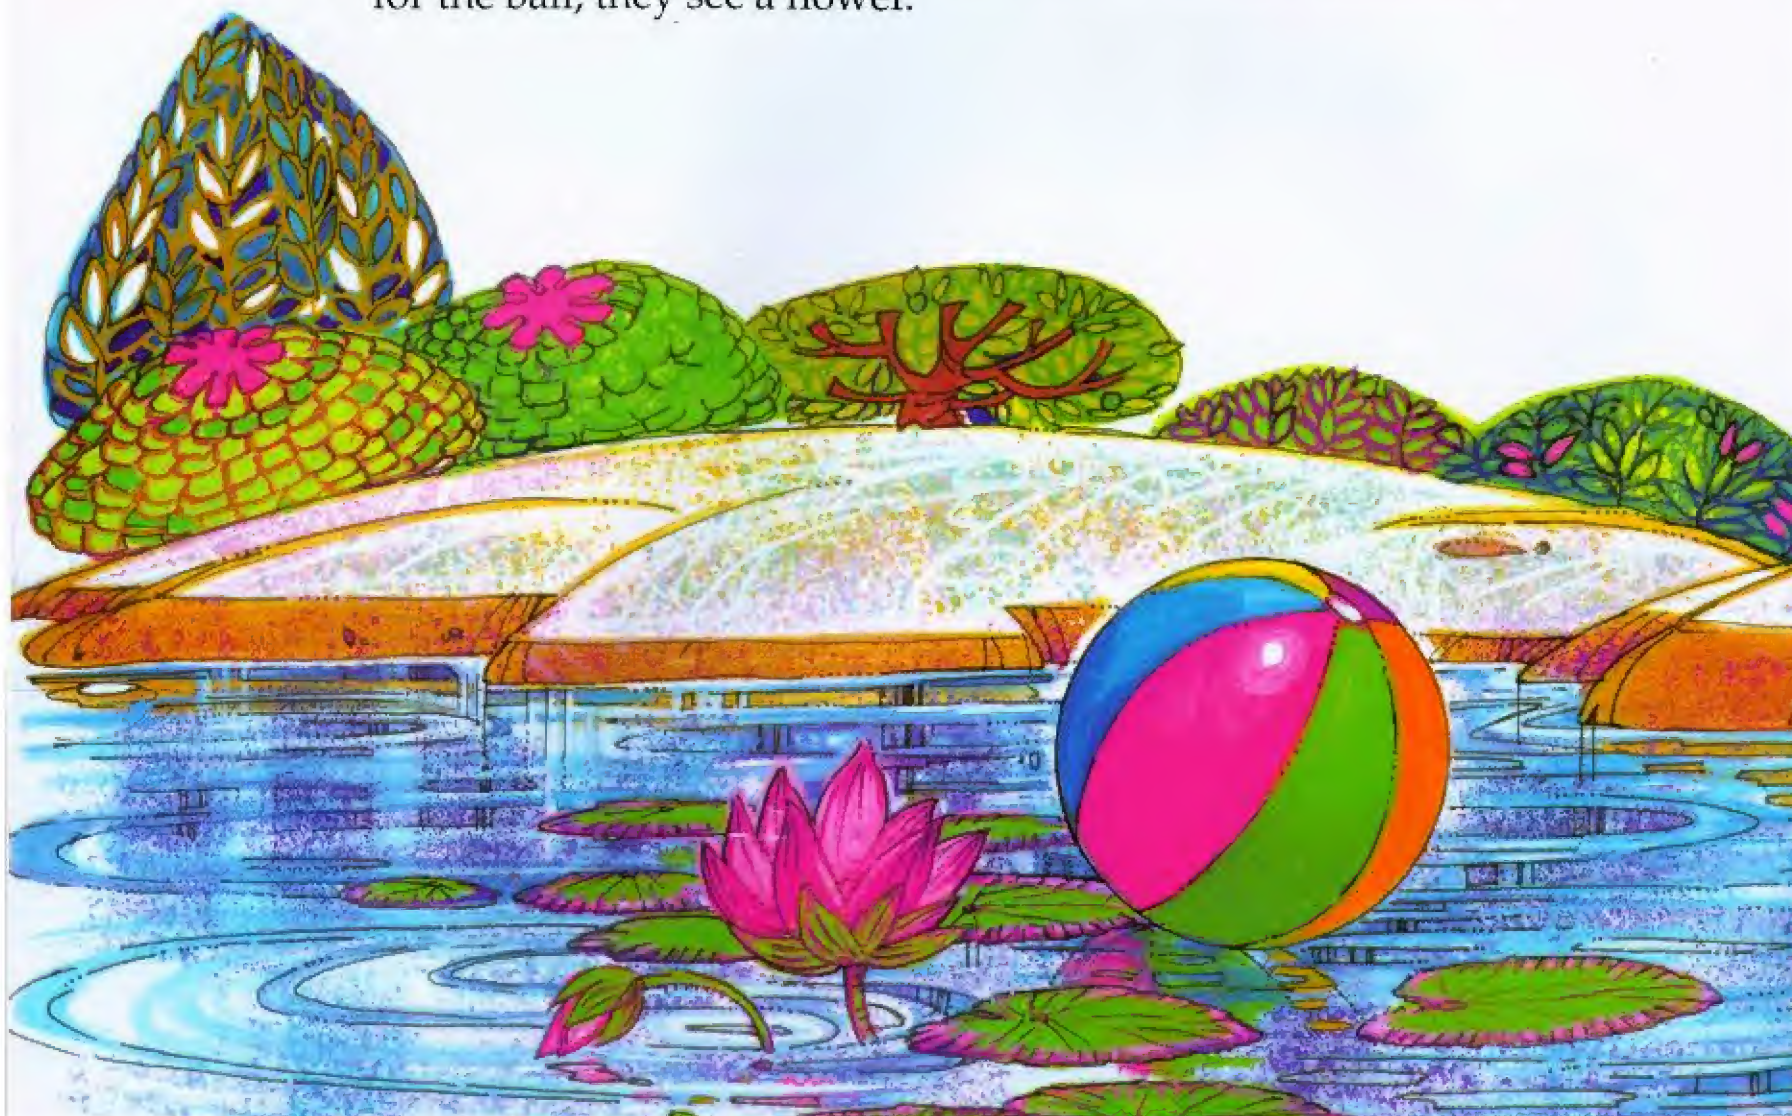

NATIONAL BOOK TRUST, INDIA

Bubu and Bulbuli are brother and sister. One day, they are playing with a ball.

Suddenly the ball falls into a pond nearby. As they are looking for the ball, they see a flower.

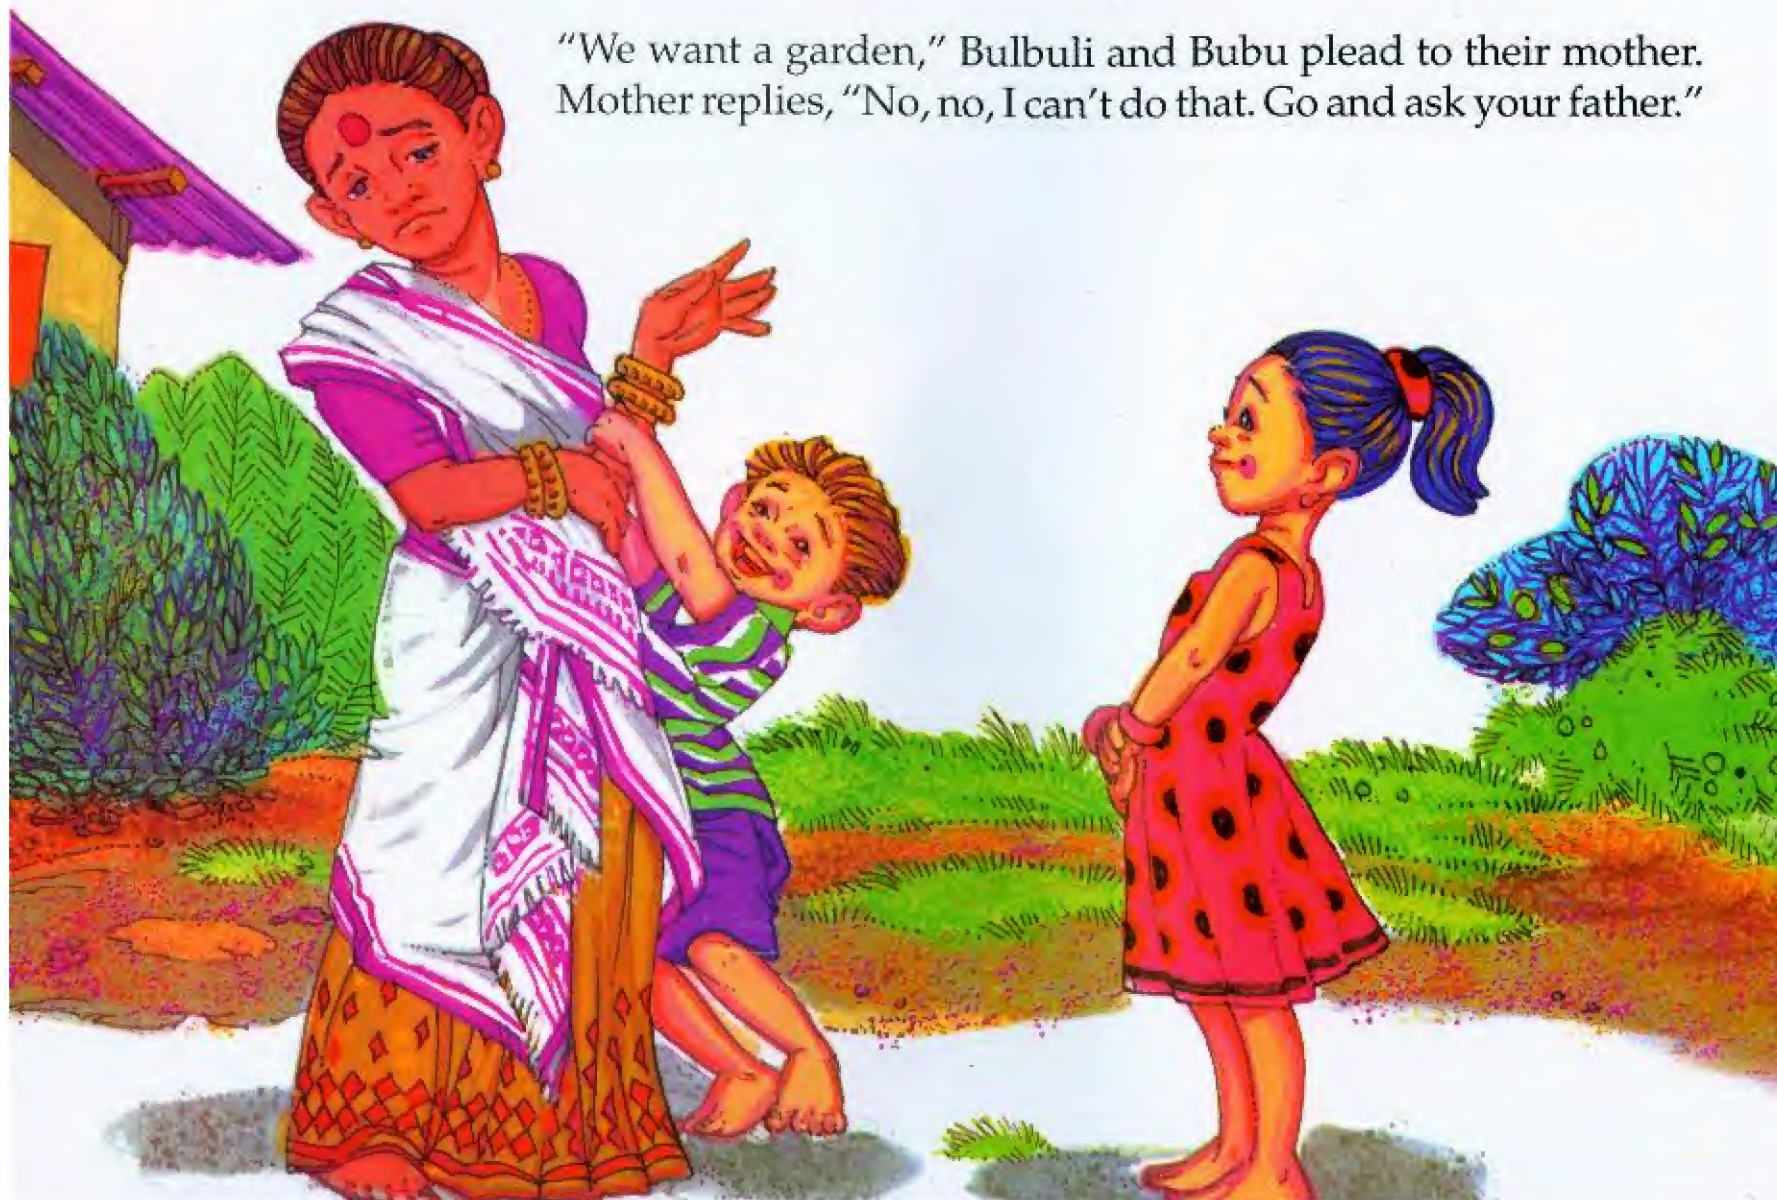

They tell their mother about the flower. Mother goes near the pond. She informs that it is a water lily.

"We want a garden," Bulbuli and Bubu plead to their mother. Mother replies, "No, no, I can't do that. Go and ask your father."

Their father prepares a plot of land for a garden.

Bulbuli and Bubu have a new garden and their friends also join them in their happiness.

Bulbuli and Bubu water the saplings daily. The plants grow bigger day by day.

One day a cow enters their garden and starts eating the saplings.
Bulbuli and Bubu become impatient.

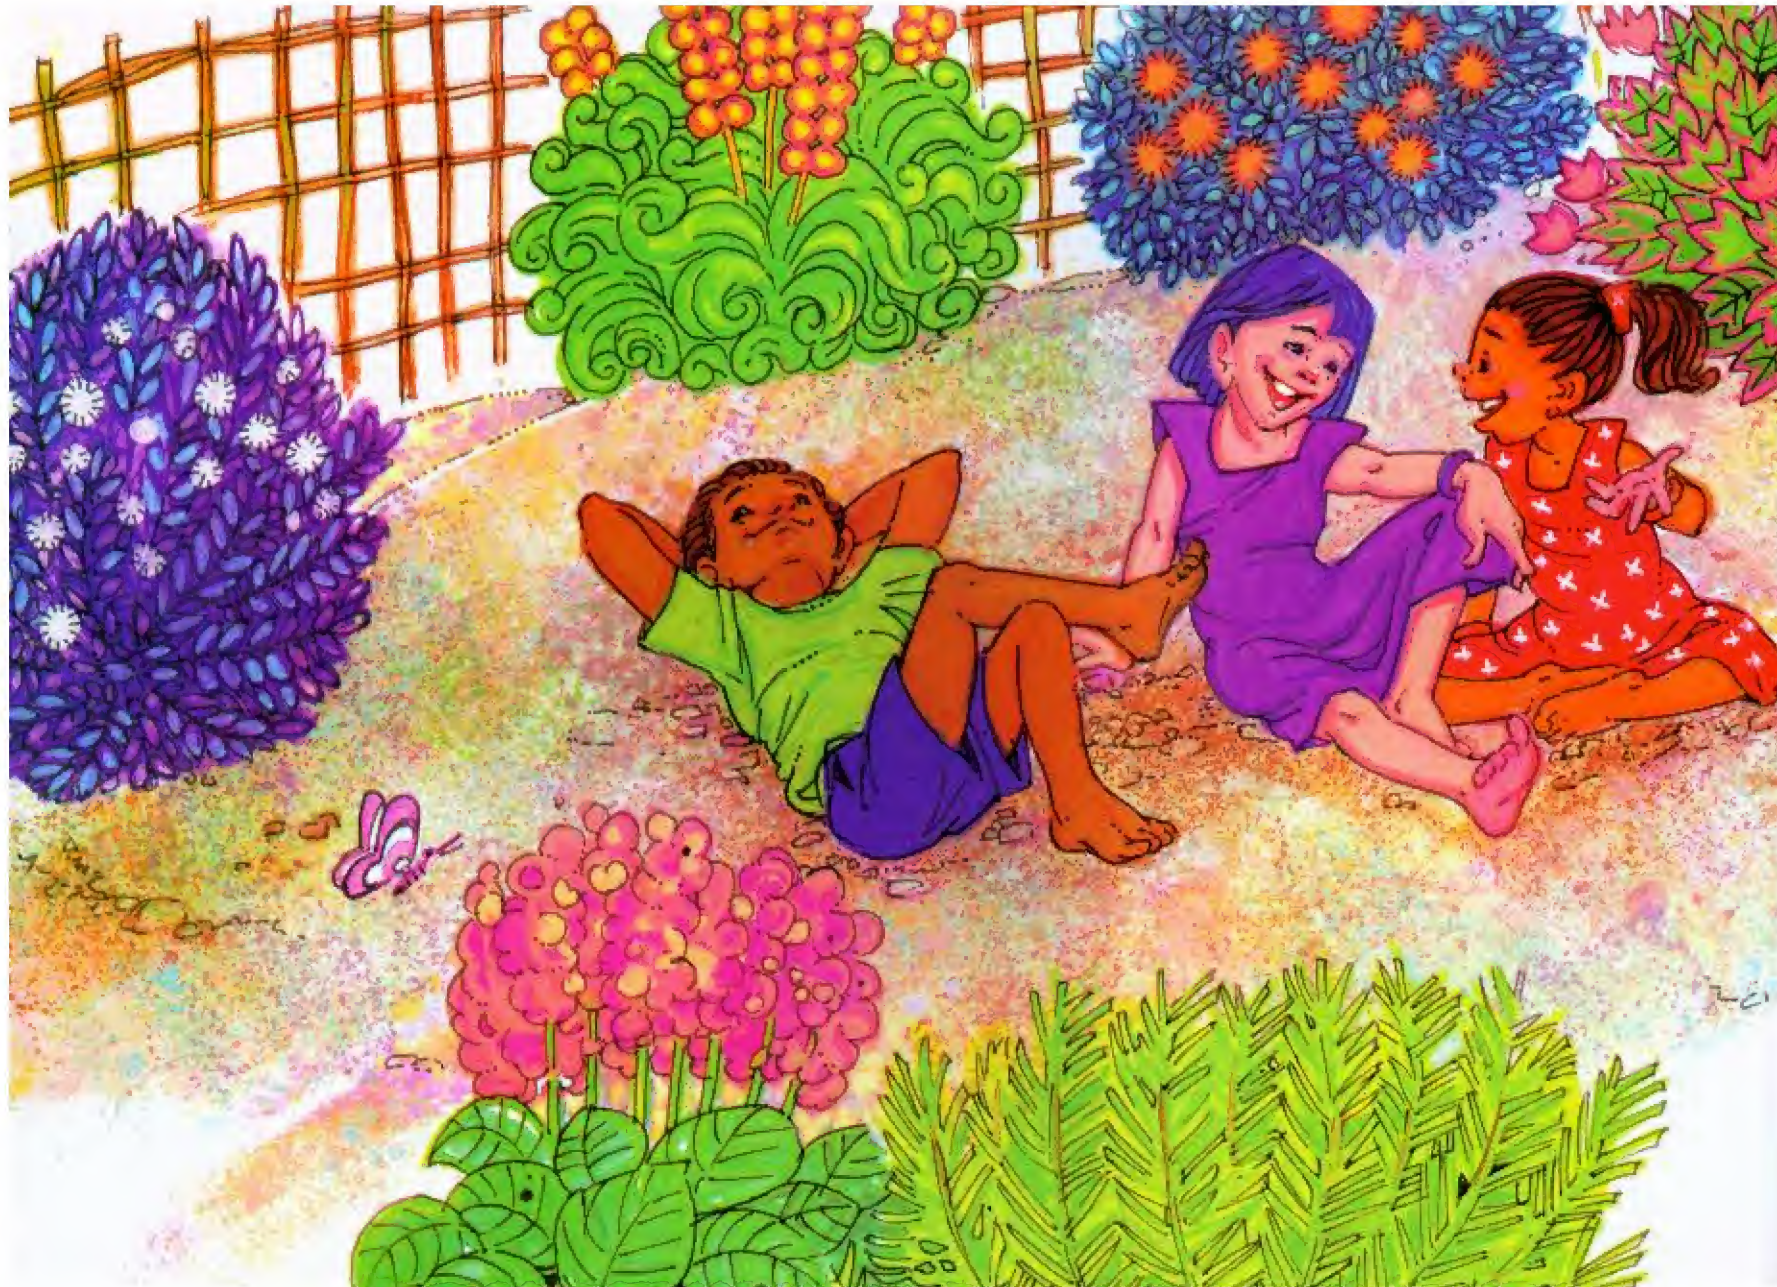

Father makes a bamboo fence around the garden.

'Don't pluck flowers' Bulbuli and Bubu hang a poster on the fence.

Their friends also start coming to their garden in the evening.
They love to chase butterflies.

One day, a pair of wild ducks come to the pond in the garden.
The children are extremely delighted to see the ducks.

They play with floating paper boats in the water.

Today is Bulbuli's birthday. Mother is busy preparing rice-cakes for her birthday party. Bulbuli helps her mother.

Bubu accompanies his father to the market to buy things for the party.

Bulbuli's friends blow up balloons and decorate the walls with colourful streamers.

Bulbuli's aunt gifts a bouquet of flowers and jokingly says, "Make a garden. Don't pluck flowers. So I am greeting you with artificial flowers!"

Everybody breaks into laughter.

₹ 30.00

National Book Trust, India

ISBN 812375618-6

5 786183 756189

12130977

